IN MEMORY OF JAMES JORDAN

Below: People will always remember the proud moment Michael and his father shared after winning the first championship in 1991.

It was Friday the thirteenth of August, 1993, and the big news story of the day cut like a knife. James Jordan was dead.

The father of the greatest Bull of them all was gone. Tragically. Senselessly.

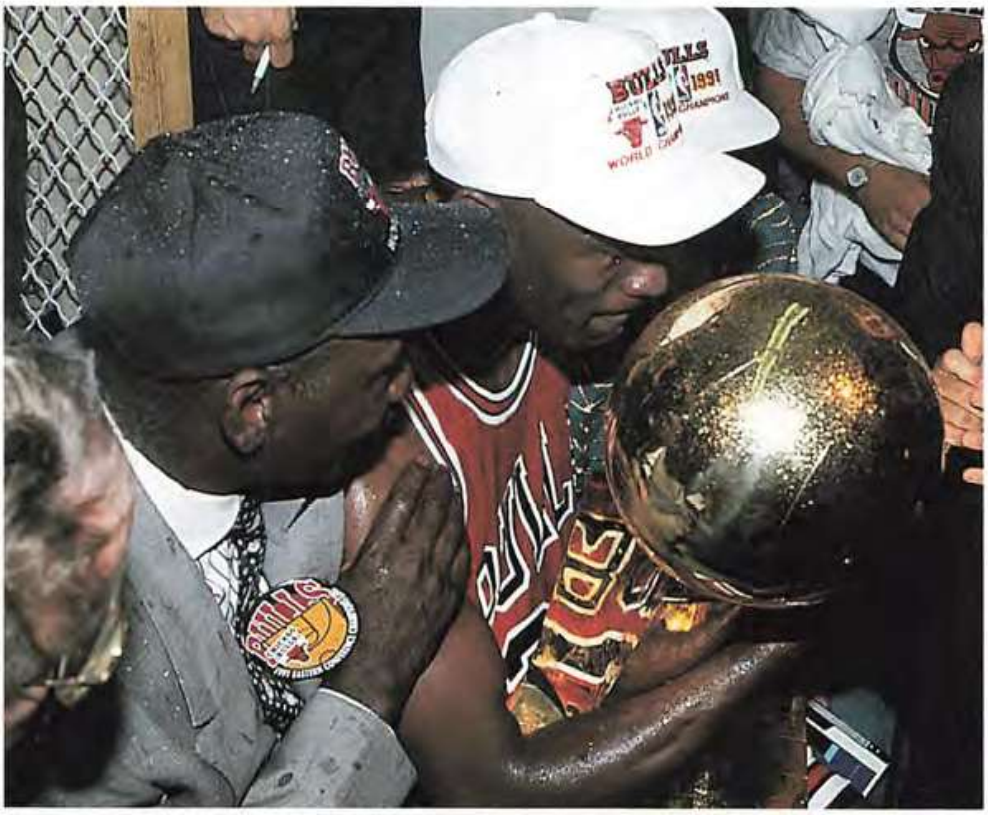
Mr. Jordan was a great man. In the seven years I knew him, I had never known him to utter a bad word about anyone. He had one of those smiles that lit up an entire room. In our case, that room was Chicago Stadium.

He always had time for you, no matter who you were, no matter your status in life. He always had a kind word and a smile that made you feel as though he was genuinely interested in you. This endeared him to many. He had a way of making you feel important. He had a way of making you feel good about yourself.

He was proud of Michael, and justifiably so. But, he also never missed an opportunity to tell you how proud he was of his other children.

Chicago Stadium just won't seem quite the same season.

— Steve Schanwald



During the 1993-94 season the Chicago Bulls will wear black patches on their jerseys in memory of James Jordan.

'Da Bulls Ain't The Only Winners In This Town.

THE ALL - NEW DODGE INTREPID IS JUST ONE OF THE MANY FLEET FAVORITES THAT NAPLETON BUYERS WIN WITH.

NAPLETON FLEET GROUP clients have also run up some pretty impressive scores, too.

CORPORATE automotive fleet buyers who bring their game plans to Napleton know they can count on single-source deals that are handled locally, delivered nationally and priced way below the competition.

NAPLETON has been a major player in the National Automotive League for more than four decades. So call us. Find out what it's like to win in a game that's not just a spectator sport.

TRY A TASTE of TURANO

Founded in 1962 by Mariano Turano, the Turano Baking Company bakes the finest breads and rolls based on authentic Italian recipes which Mariano brought over from his homeland. Today, Mariano's sons, Renato, Umberto and Giancarlo, and his brother Eugenio, continue the family tradition of quality baked goods. Through extensive taste-testing and quality-control, the Turano family makes certain the rich and robust flavors inherent to genuine Italian bread are found in the entire line of Italian food products baked by the Turano Baking Company. The Turano Family invites you to try a taste of Tradition.

THE NBA SUPPORTS ITS COMMUNITY

The NBA, its teams, players and coaches share a commitment to supporting and improving the quality of life in their communities. On the national and local levels, the NBA and its 27 teams are involved in many public service initiatives.

Since 1989, the NBA and the National Basketball Players Association have worked together to address the drop-out crisis through the NBA Stay in School program. Created to urge students to graduate from high school, the program uses the popularity of NBA players and coaches to stress the importance of attitude, attendance and achievement in school, and to encourage young people to develop pride and self-esteem. NBA Hall of Famer Bob Lanier serves as National Chairman of the NBA Stay in School program.

Through public service announcements on TV and Radio and other awareness-building programs, the NBA and its players also support the work of the Special Olympics, CARE, the National Committee to Prevent Child Abuse, and Operation Prom/Graduation, a program that encourages high school seniors to celebrate an alcohol-free prom and graduation season. The NBA creates PSA programs in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. in January and Black History Month each February, and has produced PSAs on behalf of the Retinitis Pigmentosa Foundation to fight blindness. The league and its teams also address the importance of early detection in the treatment of breast cancer in the "NBA Wives Save Lives" program.

NBA STAY IN SCHOOL

NBA Veteran Bob Lanier speaks to a crowd about the importance of staying in school.

THE CHICAGO BULLS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Chicago Bulls receive exceptional support from our fans and the city of Chicago, and the organization recognizes its responsibility to "give back" to the community. Our commitment to Chicago is to be actively involved in programs that improve the quality of life in the metropolitan area.

CHARITABULLS®

CharitaBulls® serves as the focal point for our philanthropic efforts and community service projects. Through events such as the Shoot-the-Ball 3 on 3 Classic,™ FestaBulls Dinner and Auction, and an annual Tip-Off Luncheon, funds are raised for many programs that help those with the greatest need. Among the organizations and programs we support, the majority of the funds benefit the Chicago Park District Basketball Court Rehabilitation Program. This project is a five-year commitment of $1 million that involves repairing/rebuilding park district basketball courts throughout Chicago. In addition, CharitaBulls' resources provide funding for the Illinois Special Olympics State Basketball Tournaments.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Throughout the year, contributions of Bulls memorabilia are given to charity organizations, community fundraisers, block parties and more. Items donated are typically used as auction items, raffle and/or door prizes. The Bulls also provide incentives in the form of posters and stickers for schools to reward student achievements. In addition, the Corporate Ticket Section Program reserves blocks of seats for every home game for charity organizations and under-privileged kids groups. Other Bulls' sponsored events include:

- Holiday Food Drive
- Chicago Sun-Times/Chicago Bulls Math and Science Program
- Chicago Bulls Hoop Shoot for Easter Seals
- Gatorade Summer Basketball Clinics
- Crohn's & Colitis Foundation "Rebounds for Research" Campaign
- NBA Wives Save Lives/Breast Cancer Awareness
- Speakers Bureau

The Chicago Bulls know what can be achieved when we all work together. We welcome and appreciate your support.

1992-93 SEASON SUMMARY

NOVEMBER (9-3)

The two-time defending NBA World Champion Bulls wasted little time in November sending a message that they are intent on winning a third straight title, as they jumped out to a 9-3 record for the month, tied with Milwaukee for first place in the Central Division. From Nov. 9 to Nov. 19, the Bulls reeled off a six-game winning streak, defeating, in succession, Indiana (102-97), Detroit (98-96 in OT), Milwaukee (101-96), Denver (117-84), Minnesota (124-103) and Seattle (108-99). Chicago's wins over the Timberwolves and SuperSonics, in fact, were part of a five-game Western trip that also saw the Bulls defeat Phoenix (128-111) and Golden State (101-92), and drop a 120-118 decision to the LA Lakers in overtime. Michael Jordan, named NBA Player of the Month, was again atop the NBA's scoring charts (33.7 ppg), and he also averaged 6.0 apg and 5.7 rpg. Included in Jordan's totals was a 54-point effort in the OT loss to the Lakers. Scottie Pippen contributed 19.0 points, 8.7 rebounds and a team-high 6.9 assists per game, B.J. Armstrong averaged 12.6 ppg as a starter, and Horace Grant added 11.8 ppg and a team-high 10.5 rpg.

DECEMBER (12-4)

By putting together a six-game winning streak as December came to a close, the Bulls vaulted to the top of both the Eastern Conference (with a .750 winning percentage) and Central Division (with a 4½ game lead on second place Cleveland) standings. The month-ending winning streak included Chicago Stadium triumphs over Miami, Washington and New York (89-77 on Christmas night, overcoming a 10-point halftime deficit in a nationally-televised game on NBC), and road victories over Indiana, Charlotte and Miami. Individual milestones set during the month included Coach Phil Jackson's 200th win (in a record 270 games) on Dec. 23 over Washington, and Michael Jordan passing Norm Van Lier's club record of 3,676 assists, after collecting eight against Miami on Dec. 30. In the win over the Bullets, Jordan- who averaged a team-high 30.9 ppg and amassed three triple-doubles during the month-scored 57 points. Leading rebounder Horace Grant (9.3 rpg) had a career-high 30 points against Indiana on Dec. 26, and Scottie Pippen average 17.9 ppg and a team-high 7.1 apg.

JANUARY (7-8)

The Bulls had an uncharacteristic January, with eight losses in 15 games, and that marked the first time since Phil Jackson took over as coach in 1989-90 that Chicago finished under the .500 mark during a month. January started off well enough for the Bulls as they were in the midst of a seven-game win streak, but by the end of the month the Bulls had dropped four of five games, as they embarked on a season-long nine-game road trip. Among Chicago's best efforts was a 122-106 win at Orlando on Jan. 12 and 122-101 home win over Golden State on Jan 15. On Jan. 8, during a 120-95 home win over Milwaukee, Michael Jordan became the second fastest (620 games) player to reach the 20,000 point mark for his career, behind only Wilt Chamberlain (499 games). In a 128-124 OT loss to Orlando on Jan. 16, Jordan (32.3 ppg) scored 64 points. Scottie Pippen (6.3 apg) and Horace Grant (8.8 rpg) were the Bulls' other stat leaders. Chicago will have six home and six road match-ups in February.

FEBRUARY (10-2)

Having survived a rare losing month in January, the Bulls bounced back to win 10 of 12 games in February, maintaining their hold on first place in the Central Division, 1½ games ahead of Cleveland. The month ended on a high note for Chicago, as it compiled a five-game winning streak. Wins during the streak came against Sacramento, Utah, Milwaukee, Orlando and Atlanta. All but the win over Orlando were at Chicago Stadium. Two significant road wins were at Utah, 96-92 on Feb. 1 when the Bulls overcame a 20-point deficit, and Portland, 101-91 on Feb. 7 in a rematch of the 1992 NBA Finals. Chicago participants in All-Star Weekend included B.J. Armstrong in the AT&T Long Distance Shootout, and Michael Jordan and Scottie Pippen, elected as starters for the East team at the All-Star Game. Jordan was the Bulls' leader this month in scoring, averaging 33.5 ppg, Pippen added 22.8 ppg and a team-high 5.5 apg, and Horace Grant chipped in with averages of 11.3 rpg and 13.1 ppg.

MARCH (10-4)

Bolstered by a six-game winning streak, the Bulls won 10 of 14 games in March, finishing the month just ½ a game behind the New York Knicks for the top playoff seed in the Eastern Conference. Early in the month team leader Michael Jordan missed two games with a foot infection. In those games, the Bulls defeated Dallas (125-97 on March 3) and lost to San Antonio (107-102 in OT). In the 12 games Jordan played, he averaged a team-high 33.8 ppg, including scoring 52 in a 123-108 win over Charlotte on March 12. Scottie Pippen posted steady averages on 18.5 ppg and 7.9 rpg and Horace Grant 13.4 ppg and a team-high 8.8 rpg. B.J. Armstrong scored a career-high 28 points in a 101-94 win over the LA Clippers on March 15.

APRIL (9-4)

Chicago closed out the 1992-93 regular season by going 9-4 in the month of April. The Bulls didn't close the season the way they would have like dropping their last two straight games (at Charlotte and at New York) and losing three of their last five games overall. Ironically, the Bulls finished with the second best road record in the NBA at 26-15. The Bulls were hot at home. Chicago closed out the regular season winning five straight home games, 16 of the last 18. The Bulls' 57-25 regular season record gave the Bulls their fourth straight 50+ win season.

MEDIA INFORMATION

As the Chicago Bulls enter their 28th season in the league and final year in Chicago Stadium, the team appreciates the coverage and support from the Chicagoland media. We look forward to assisting the media again this season. In an effort to provide a professional work environment, the Bulls have established the following guidelines for the season:

CREDENTIALS: We will honor all reasonable requests for credentials from recognized newspapers, magazines, radio and television outlets. The only season passes that will be honored at the Stadium are Bulls season credentials and NBA season credentials. Each of those credentials will admit the bearer to the Stadium, the upstairs press box, press row and both locker rooms. However, MEDIA MEMBERS HOLDING SEASON PASSES SHOULD NOTIFY THE BULLS OFFICE IF PLANNING TO COVER A GAME IN ORDER TO RESERVE SEATING. Please make seating requests at least 48 hours prior to the game.

Individual single game press and photo credentials can be secured for accredited media members by calling the Bulls Media Services office no later than 5:00 pm the day BEFORE a game (5:00 pm Friday for a weekend game). Single passes can be picked up at Gate 3½ on the west side of the Stadium.

It is recommended that credentials be visibly worn in the Stadium to facilitate proper access to designated areas. In all cases, season and single game passes are non-transferable and any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from the Stadium and the forfeiture of the credential.

PRESS ROOM: The upstairs press box serves as the Bulls press room. Only working media with a valid credential will be allowed in the press box. The work area is equipped with electrical outlets. Media needing phones for the season or a single game should contact Tim Hallam (312/943-5800) two weeks in advance.

SERVICES: A pre-game meal will be served in the lower level of the southwest corner of the Stadium. Prior to the game, the media will also be provided with game notes and programs. All statistical services including play-by-play, quarter statistics, halftime and final box scores, and postgame quotes will be distributed at press row and in the upstairs press box. Scores from other NBA games being played will be flashed on the auxiliary scoreboards located on the mezzanine level at both the north and south sides of the Stadium. Fax service is provided before, during or after the game by Tom Wiscarz of Telesports.

LOCKER ROOM: In accordance with NBA policy, the Bulls and visitor's locker rooms will be open to the media up to 45 minutes before the game and 10 minutes after the end of the game. Only working media with a valid credential will be admitted to the locker rooms. The Bulls locker room is located on the east side of the Stadium, while the visitor's locker room is located on the west side.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Season passes will be issued to accredited photographers from large circulation Chicagoland daily newspapers. Photographers from other newspapers or magazines wishing to work specific games must request single-game passes. Freelance photographers needing credentials must submit a letter with a specific assignment from a publication.

POST-GAME GUESTS: Please be sure to list THREE choices for radio and television post-game interviews. This will assure a guest in case the first choice is unavailable.

AUTOGRAPHS: No autographs of players and coaches are allowed during media access periods.
